MISCELLANEOUS

Has anyone by chance got two of Catharine Parr Traill's books tucked under their bed? Two of her books have disappeared from The Library recently. They are: The backwoods of Canada and The Canadian settler's guide. Both have the Dewey number 971.3 on their spine. If someone finds them, please put them on the first desk in The Library.

The CBC semi-finalists on the programme "Reach for the top" toured The Grange on May 19, 1983. Being the bright young people that they are, they all enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Ruth Keene, head interpreter at The Grange has been appointed a Director of the Ontario Historical Society, Museums Section Executive. Ruth's expertise is in demand more and more. Congratulations Ruth.

All Grange Researchers should be aware that the CANADIANA LIBRARY is now open in expanded quarters at the Sigmund Samuel Canadiana Building. The collection includes about 6000 volumes on national and local history; Canadian and American paintings, drawings, prints and decorative arts; farming and manufacturing methods; and some 500 rare books on early voyages and travels. Library hours: Monday to Friday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

THE ROM has two "walks" that will be of interest to The Grange Volunteers. These are hour-long tours which are held rain or shine and are free.

Bishop Strachan's Toronto of the 1830's, Sat. June 4 and 11, 11:00 a.m. Meet at the Bank of Upper Canada, 252 Adelaide St. E. Light refreshments will be served at the St. Lawrence Market Mezzanine.

Whiskey, Wharfs, and Windmills, Sat. June 18 and 25, 11:00 a.m. Meet at the steps of Little Trinity Church, 425 King St. E. Light refreshments will be served at the Enoch Turner Schoolhouse. For details call 978-5455.

There are 10 more copies of THREE CENTURIES OF ROBINSONS by Julia Jarvis for sale at $3.00 each. Janet Hodapp has them in her office.

Sheila Badgley orchestrated a very interesting evening on Monday, May 30th for all Volunteers who had toured the Historic Sites in the Toronto area. A light supper was served, and then the Volunteers gave their over-all impressions and observations of the techniques used by the sites interpreters. Much was learned from these visits. The presentations were excellent, and Sheila is to be congratulated for the excellent manner in which she organized the evening. She would like to share the credit, and thank everyone who came and especially those who brought "goodies" for the table. More than 30 Volunteers attended.

Don't miss the article by Pleasance Crawford, a Wednesday Volunteer, entitled PARSLEY, SAGE, ROSEMARY & THYME. It is in the Summer issue of "City and Country Home" which is in The Library.
